Murdoch Security Group Engages Newbridge Securities

NEW YORK, September 22, 2009 – Murdoch Security Group today announced an exclusive investment banking arrangement with Fort Lauderdale-based Newbridge Securities Corporation.

“Through our unique approach, we seek out and attract the highest quality security firms and empower local leaders to deliver a wide range of services, from uniformed guards to premium protection for high-profile individuals and businesses,” says Murdoch chairman and CEO William (Bill) Vassell.

Douglas Aguililla, Executive Managing Director of Investment Banking at Newbridge Securities’ Fort Lauderdale office, added, “We look forward to working with Murdoch Security’s proven management team. I believe this is a great time to consolidate a very fragmented industry.”

Founded in 1994 as Murdoch Security & Investigations, the Murdoch Security Group serves an expanding client base through local and regional security companies throughout the East coast. The company recently expanded its operations in Mexico to ensure clients with business operations in Mexico have full-service, high-quality protection for their companies and employees.

Newbridge Securities Corporation is a full-service investment bank that provides innovative financing solutions and advisory services to corporate clients and investors. The firm’s investment banking professionals have more than 70 years of experience in corporate finance and focus on servicing companies in the global emerging markets, as well as various high-growth U.S. middle market sectors. Newbridge offers capital markets distribution capabilities through its global institutional investor network.
